A top-down view of a wooden desk. In the top left corner, there is a white cup of coffee with a dark liquid and a light-colored foam. Below the coffee, on the left side, is a small white square pot containing several green succulent-like plants. In the center of the desk, there are four paper clips: two are white and two are green. A silver ballpoint pen with a textured grip lies diagonally across the lower left. In the bottom left corner, a portion of a brown leather notebook is visible. The background is a light-colored wooden surface with a vertical grain.
